It's been a jam-packed week for 6JH! The children took part in a mock trial on cyberbullying, stepping into the roles of lawyers, witnesses, and jurors – a fantastic opportunity to learn about online safety and justice in a fun and engaging way.

We also welcomed an author into school, who inspired the children to write their own poems about the things they love (and hate!) – some brilliant creativity on display!

On top of that, the children showed amazing team spirit during Sports Day and the Colour Run, getting active and cheering each other on throughout. Well done 6JH!

The book fair is returning on 23rd June! It will be set up outside the main office and open both before and after school.

New this year: The fair is now cashless! Recognising that fewer people carry cash, we've made the switch to a cashless system to make things easier for everyone. QR codes will be displayed at the fair for convenient online purchases.
